

Welcome 5th Graders!

Students entering 5th grade should read 2 chapter books:

- One book of your choice
- One non-fiction or historical fiction

*You will receive a special prize if one of the books you read is based on or about WWI or WWII. It may be fiction and based on that time period. (example: Rascal) Or you may choose to read a true story about one of those wars.

Some WWI and WWII reading suggestions. You may choose a book that is not on this list.

- True Stories of D-Day by: Henry Brook
- The Hidden Girl by: Lola Kaufman and Lois Metzger
- True Stories of The Second World War by: Paul Dowswell
- A Boy at War by: Harry Mazer
- On the Wings of Heroes by: Richard Peck
- Rascal by: Sterling North
- Early Sunday Morning-The Pearl Harbor Diary of Amber Billows by: Barry Denenberg
- The Boy Who Dared by: Susan Campell Bartletti
- Someone Named Eva by: Joan M. Wolf
- D-Day by: Henry Brook
- Weedflower by: Cynthia Kadohata
- World War II-The Events and Their Impacts on Real People by: R. G. Grant
- War Horse By: Michael Morpurgo

Book # 1 Your Choice

Title: _____

Author: _____

Draw a picture of your favorite event from the book.

Write a paragraph to describe what your picture is about.

Book # 2

Title: _____

Author: _____

Is this book a WWI, WWII, or your choice book? (Circle one)

If the book you read is about WWI or WWII, write 3 facts that you learned from your book.

If the book you read is your choice, write 3 events that happened in the story.
